Forest Fire Property Damage Estimates Reach $5.5 Million

By Irene Pettyjohn

Property damage estimates have reached the $5.5 million mark as insurance companies continue to process claims from victims of the devastating forest fire that ripped through Crawford County on Tuesday, May 8.

George Stancil, vice president of the Cornell Agency, said preliminary estimates of losses insured by his agency alone have reached $2 million and will go higher. He said two other Grayling independent insurance agencies, Sorenson and Grayling Insurance, have processed 26 more loss claims that total about $650,000.

State Farm Insurance has approved in excess of $600,000 in claims. Disaster supervisor for the agency, Bill Heemer, who has been working from a temporary office at the Grayling Holiday Inn, said they are still getting a trickle of claims, primarily for tree damage.

Herb Olson, agent for the Grayling Farm Bureau Insurance office, said his company has approved nearly $200,000 in claims that varied from one total loss of a residence, destroyed recreational vehicles to smoke damage.

Total insured losses are estimated at $5.5 million, but Stancil said a complete loss figure, insured and uninsured, is difficult to project because of the fluctuation of land values.

"It is not uncommon for us to process one million dollars in small claims during a year," said Stancil, "but $2 million in one day puts a different color on things."

Stancil said, at last count, Cornell had processed claims for 31 total residential losses.

RELIEF EFFORTS CONTINUE

As fire victims file for insurance claims, community relief efforts continue to try to help with its citizen's losses.

Last Friday, Crawford County emergency management director Howard Taylor announced that the federal government had declared the county a disaster area, making fire victims eligible for a variety of services. He said a One Stop Assistance Center will be established at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Norway Street beginning Wednesday, May 30, and concluding at 4 p.m. on Friday, June 1. (See details in separate article in this week's issue.)

In addition to Taylor, representatives of the Ministerial Association will be present to accept applications from victims of the fire.

Rev. Robert Gordon, president of the Ministerial Assoc.,

said his organization is asking everyone who has a need as a result of the fire, regardless of the size, to make application with them so that they can assess the community's needs and begin processing the applications, according to need. Gordon said the Ministerial Assoc. is hoping to have all applications by July 1st.

"The Salvation Army, American Red Cross and Michigan Dept. of Social Services are limited to type and quantity of services they can give," said Rev. Gordon. "We are not."

He said the Ministerial Assoc. will be focusing their assistance on needs not covered by the other agencies.

The organization of local clergy has received more than $47,000 in donations for fire victims. These donations range from $110.85 given by the Grayling Middle School fifth grade students, earned by collecting pop bottles, to a $10,000 donation from Shell Western.

"The goal of this organization is to use these funds to help the fire victims," said Father Derik Roy, treasurer for the group, "not to have $30,000 sitting in the bank this time next year."

"The folks who had the least and lost the most are the people we need to help the first," said Rev. Gordon. "But every application will be considered, and we will be extending financial support as long as the money holds out."

Clothing outlets are beginning to close their operations as the need for clothing is diminishing.

Rev. Gordon said a truck from St. Vincent DePaul, of Detroit, came to St. John Lutheran Church last Friday and took the clothing items not needed by fire victims. Inmates from the Crawford County Jail helped load the bags of clothing on the truck.

St. John Lutheran Church's fellowship hall and sanctuary have been so full of clothing since the fire that Sunday worship services were held outside on May 13, and at St. Mary's Catholic Church on May 20.

Clothing and food items will be available at the St. Mary's Catholic Church Family Center for one more week, and then clothing needs will be handled through the St. Francis Thrift Shop. Father Roy said there will be no charge for fire victims. Clothing will be available through the Thrift Shop for three or four months, or until all the needs of the community have been met.

Because of the tremendous volume of clothing donations, St. Mary's is opening its clothing to everyone in the community

County Declared Disaster Area

As a result of the devastating fires which swept Crawford County earlier this month, the Federal Government has declared the county a disaster area. The declaration came after an audit of the damage completed by the Small Business Administration. Declaration of a disaster by the Federal Government makes Crawford County and the residents affected, eligible for a variety of services. These services could be in the form of actual services performed, technical advice, or financial assistance.

As a result of the declaration, a One Stop Assistance Center will be established at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Norway Street in Grayling. The center will be open to fire victims on Wednesday, May 30, from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m.; Thursday, May 31, from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m.; and again on Friday, June 1, from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. The phone number of the One Stop Assistance Center is 348-6502.

It would be a good idea for everyone who was affected by the fire to plan to stop by the One Stop Assistance Center. At the center will be representatives of all the agencies, federal, state, and local, who have services available to fire victims. This will include low interest loans through the SBA for the reconstruction of homes. Other organizations available at the center will have grant money available for those who qualify.

Fire victims are also reminded that there is an ample supply of food and clothing available. Persons who need any of these commodities are encouraged to contact the center.

who needs clothing during this last week of operation. Food donations will continue to be reserved for fire victims only and persons housing fire victims.

A fire survival support group meets at St. John Lutheran Church, on Thursdays at 7 p.m., led by Craig Hexham from New Life Community Services.

Father Roy said counselors from New Life Community Services, North Central Community Mental Health, school counselling offices, and ministers and priests from area churches are available to talk with victims as well as persons who lived in the path of the fire, but whose property was miraculously spared, concerning the crisis grief recovery process.

Saturday Crash Injures Four

Speed and alcohol were contributing factors in a single car accident on Saturday, May 26, that sent four persons to the hospital. Two were later transferred by helicopter to Munson Medical Center in Traverse City.

The accident occurred at 8:42 p.m. on I-32, near the Oscoda County line in Lovells Township. The vehicle was traveling west when the driver lost control and rolled over. The vehicle caught on fire and was destroyed.

Two persons in the front seat were wearing their seat belts.

Names of the driver and passengers were not released pending further investigation by the Crawford County Sheriff Dept.

Citations Issued For Taking Fawns

DNR conservation officers have begun issuing citations to persons who remove fawns and other young animals from the woods without permission.

Conservation officer Mark Lutz said every spring young animals are taken from the woods by people who think the animals have been abandoned by their mothers. More than 80 percent of these animals die.

"Mom is not that far away," said Lutz. "She is probably just out of sight or hunting for food."

Persons removing a young animal from the woods face fines of about $115 for being in possession of a game animal protected by the DNR without a permit. Anyone finding a young animal and thinks there might be a problem should contact a conservation officer, the nearest DNR field office or sheriff's department.

Michigan's forests serve as Mother Nature's nursery during the spring and are teeming with baby raccoons, rabbits, squirrels, birds and many other types of wildlife. Lutz said they have a much better survival rate if left alone.

Voters To Decide New Elementary Request

Voters in the Crawford-AuSable School District will be asked to approve two issues for the construction and operation of a new elementary school on June 11.

One mill is being requested to pay off the bonds for the $5.5 million construction project. Another 1.75 mills is being requested to pay for the cost of operating the new school and will not be collected until the building is opened.

The board of education has stated that both issues must pass before the new school will be built.

WHY BUILD?

Student enrollment at the Grayling Elementary School is at 625 students, making it one of the largest elementary schools in Michigan. Overcrowding conditions made it necessary last fall to bus five classes (118 students) from the Grayling Elementary School to Frederic Elementary School.

The problem of too many students for too few classrooms will increase as large kindergarten classes (165-185) move through the elementary schools to the Grayling Middle School, which was designed for 600 students.

By 1992, the Grayling Middle School will have an enrollment of 700 students, 100 students over capacity. Before this date, space for the fifth grade must be made available at the elementary school level.

Every classroom in both elementary schools is in use now.

COST TO THE AVERAGE HOMEOWNER

The new elementary school will cost persons with a $50,000 home with an assessed value of $25,000, $25 for the 1990-91 tax year (during construction) and an additional $43.75 a year after the school opens for a total tax increase of $68.75 a year for about 20 years.

WHAT DOES THE CONSTRUCTION PROJECT INCLUDE?

The new elementary school will be constructed for grades pre-school through second grades. It will be located on the current Grayling Elementary School playground and high school football field site.

Although the new elementary school will be a separate school with its own principal, gymnasium and cafeteria, it will be connected to the Grayling Elementary School by a 40 ft. hallway and share a central kitchen. Construction will include an appropriate playground, parking spaces, and a bus traffic lane for both buildings.

In addition to the construction of the new building, the project will include some structural modifications to the Grayling and Frederic Elementary Schools.

At the Grayling Elementary School, which will house grades, 3-5, construction will include expanding the office space, improving ventilation, making energy efficiency improvements, and constructing an appropriate playground and parking facility.

At Frederic, renovations will include constructing walls to enclose open classrooms, roof replacement on the 30 year old section, energy efficiency improvements and playground and parking improvements.

Because the new elementary school is to be built on the site of the football field, it will be necessary to relocate the football field and track just north of the Grayling High School parking lot on property owned by the school district.

WHY BUILD THE NEW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL IN TOWN?

Building the new elementary school next to the Grayling Elementary School will allow the two building to not only share a central kitchen, but also support personnel and specialists. Having the two schools centrally located will save transportation costs.

A city site will save the costs of a sewage treatment facility, wells, land acquisition, and site work, estimated at between $130,000 - $370,000.

WHAT IF THE BOND ISSUE FAILS?

Without the new elementary school, the Grayling Middle School and both elementary schools will be seriously overcrowded. The two substandard portable classrooms at the Grayling Elementary School will be pressed into use and the busing of Grayling Elementary School students to the Frederic Elementary School will continue.

If the bond issue is approved on June 11th, the new elementary school will be ready for the fall of 1991.

Citizen-Soldiers Maintain High Quality of 1071st Company

By Jason Teddy,
Cadet MI ARNG

Maintenance is a term common to all those who operate machinery, but to the soldiers of the 1071st Heavy Equipment Maintenance Company, this term possesses a much deeper meaning. The 1071st, located at the Mobilization and Training Equipment Site (MATES), turns wrenches on everything from Jeeps to tanks, and with great efficiency. In fact, because of the unit's maintenance mission and technical expertise, the 1071st is a high priority unit upon mobilization in time of conflict. This priority allows for the unit to be dispatched to Europe in as little as three days, should the need arise. This responsibility is borne well by the unit, however, according to Captain Ken Arndt, Commander of the 1071st.

Captain Arndt, part owner of the Alpine Appraisal Services, Inc. in Gaylord, served for seven years on active duty in the United States Army before enlisting in the Michigan National Guard in 1987. It was not until December 1989 that he assumed the position of Commanding Officer of the 1071st, which he seems to enjoy greatly.

"I think that the best part about the Army is working with people," says Arndt regarding the National Guard and his role as Commander, "and of the people I've seen in Northern Michigan in the National Guard, the people of the 1071st are the very best." This opinion is seconded by Second Lieutenant Chris Golnick and Company First Sergeant Rudy Martinez as they speak about the fire that the immediate area. Soon, however, it is her hope that she and her family will be able to find a home in the Grayling area.

Besides being a husband and father, Rudy Martinez, another prominent figure in the 1071st, performs as the Company First Sergeant for the 1071st. Martinez, who has lived in the Grayling area since 1974, has had much experience with the Guard and the community, which he views as a positive, complementary relationship, both socially and economically. Martinez also stressed the selfless service of the soldiers of the 1071st regarding the recent fire and the dedication they exhibited to the unit and to the community. For this he is both grateful and proud, especially when performing his duties as First Sergeant.

Clearly, the men and women of the 1071st HEMCO are unique in their technical and professional mission regarding their role in the defense of our nation. Even more impressive, however, is their dedication to the growth, preservation, and welfare of the community, not only as soldiers, but as citizens as well. Recently raged east of Grayling. According to Golnick, approximately fifty to sixty people from the unit volunteered their assistance to the effort.

Golnick, married and father of three, serves as Maintenance Control Officer of the 1071st. As Maintenance Control Officer, Lieutenant Golnick is responsible for overseeing and coordinating workloads between the unit and MATES, which is currently a full-time duty. Fortunately, these duties do not impose significantly upon his home life. In fact, Mrs.

Golnick is actively involved in the Family Support Group for the unit, which is an organization that acts as a liaison between the unit and the soldier's family during mobilization and peacetime.

Another officer, Second Lieutenant Luanne Cunningham, reflects the Army's changing attitude regarding women in the Armed Forces. Currently serving as Mechanical Maintenance Platoon Leader, Cunningham supervises and directly controls her own platoon containing dozens of soldiers. Furthermore, Lieutenant Cunningham acts as the unit nuclear, biological, and chemical (NBC) warfare officer, as well as mobilization officer. Also, Lieutenant Cunningham has helped with implementing new programs as directed by the Commander. One of these programs is physical training, where occasionally Lieutenant Cunningham has led aerobics for the unit. This program drew mixed responses from many of the unit's soldiers, who range in age from seventeen years to retirement.

Unlike many of the soldiers in the 1071st, Lieutenant Cunningham does not live in

REMEMBERING THE FALLEN--A Memorial Service was held on Monday at Elmwood Cemetery to remember the servicemen and women who made the ultimate sacrifice for the freedom of all Americans. The service was led by members of American Legion Post #106. LTC Wayne Koppa, Camp Grayling's Post Commander, spoke about heroic deeds performed by military personnel. Participating were Camp Grayling's Color Guard and firing squad, VFW Post #3736, Joe Murphy, and taps was played by two members of the Grayling High School Band. Photo by Irene Pettyjohn

We haven't been able to keep up with all the pertinent news involving the May 8th forest fire. There are so many people affected and so much help from all over has poured in. But please call if you know of something all of our readers should know.

We apologize if you were unable to buy an Avalanche recently. The morning after the May 8th fires, we ordered a couple hundred newspapers above our normal run of 5,000 and sold out that week.

The next issue with nearly six full pages of forest fire news and photos also sold out, even though we ordered 5,700 printed.

Last week, for the May 24th issue, we ordered 5,500 and we still have newspapers available for the first time in three weeks.

Because of the extraordinary number of requests for copies of those two issues that were sold out, we've put together a special Avalanche forest fire reprint. Eight pages of articles, photos, maps, columns, and letters from the May 10, May 17, May 24, and today's issues have been reprinted in the special section. The reprint will cost $1. The price is higher than our newspaper's cost of 35 cents because there are no advertisements on any of the eight pages in the section. All profits above our printing and production costs will be donated to the fire victim's relief fund. The reprint is available only at the Avalanche office 8:30-5 p.m., Monday through Friday, beginning May 31. Mail orders are $1 extra and are available by calling 517/348-6811 or writing to the Crawford County Avalanche, P.O. Box 490, Grayling, MI 49738.

Let's Talk About It

By Joe Murphy

I wonder if the younger housewives of today really appreciate the convenience and work-saving of their automatic washers and dryers. Compared to the old days doing the laundry today is a breeze. Let's look back at how it was done in the good old days. Monday was the traditional wash day, and when I was a boy Monday morning was a dreaded time. You had to get up early and see to it the wood box was filled and a lot of water had to be pumped to fill the wash boiler and various other containers that were used to heat the wash water. When all was ready, I was off to school while Mom was faced with a day of backbreaking labor.

When the water was hot enough, she filled the wash tubs and shaved some of her home made lye soap in to the water. The old scrub board got a real workout as each piece of laundry was scrubbed clean. As each piece was cleaned it was ran through the crank turned wringer into the rinse water. When a good bunch had gathered in the rinse water, the old clothes stomper was used to clean the soap from them. The clothes stomper looked about like a metal toilet plunger. The clothes were ran through the wringer again into the wash basket and carried outside to hang on the line to dry. Good housewives took great pride in the whiteness and brightness of their laundry and worked hard to hang the cleanest laundry in the neighborhood. Even in winter clothes were hung out as freezing tended to help them dry. Doing the laundry for a good sized family meant a day of hard work for the moms of that day.

When the electric washer came along to help, it was hailed as the greatest labor saving machine known to the ladies of that day. It eliminated the scrub board and the hand cranked wringer. For the farm women before the days of R.E.A., May Tag had a washer that was powered by a small gas engine. Many farm ladies of that day had a powerful right leg from tromping on the kick starter of those old May Tags.

The housewife of those days may have had hands that were rough and red from the scrub board and lye soap as she tried to keep her family in clean clothes, even if they were patch upon patch.

So ladies, when it comes time to count your blessings don't forget to include the automatic washers and dryers of today.

Tuesday was the day when the housewives of the day did the ironing. In those days our wash and wear and permanent press clothes were just a dream. Heating the irons on the stove to iron each item meant another day of backbreaking work in those days.

So ladies, as you do your laundry with the modern appliances we enjoy today, think of how grandma had to work to get hers done. Thank God you're not living back in the Good Ole Days?

Couldn't Have Made It Without Great People

Dear Editor,

We too, were victims of the fire on May 8th. Our thanks go out to the many people who helped us through the difficult days following the loss of our home.

Many thanks to the Red Cross, the ambulance crew, K of C, DNR, the National Guard, and to the pastors that opened their doors to help everyone.

Thanks to all the volunteers that gave their time so freely. Thank you to all that made donations which helped us get started again.

Without all you great people out there we could not have made it through this difficult time.

Thanks to our friends who gave us so much help getting into our temporary home.

We give many thanks to the wonderful lady that gave us a home to live in until we get our own place again. God bless you all.

Can Never Thank Everyone Enough

To the Editor:

I wish to thank a lot of this county, state, and city's population; the fire departments, Crawford County Sheriff's Department, Grayling City Police; all transportation and construction industries; all citizens for their support and help; business and service industries; the DNR for the great job they did in responding to this emergency.

With the orderly and quick deployment of people and equipment in an efficient and business way that saved a lot of homes and other property. The staff of the Michigan State Police and Highway Department, and also the Michigan National Guard, who are often abused, called week-end warriors, and despoilers of the environment, by some of our fellow citizens with closed minds. Thanks.

Honor Society Helps Hospice

Hospice of Crawford County wishes to express their gratitude to the students of the 1990 Honor Society and their sponsor Mr. Dean. The students prepared and served a Spaghetti Dinner in April at the Knights of Columbus Hall for the benefit of Hospice. They raised more than $600 on this fund raising event.

The hard work of the students and the excellent support from the business community made this a memoorable event. The following merchants also supported the students through the donation of supplies and food: McDonald's Restaurant, Ole Dam Party Store, Denny's I.G.A., Goodale's Bakery, and the Knights of Columbus. A hearty thanks to all of you for your efforts and generosity. The goodness of heart and support of the community mean so much to the people we seek to serve. Thanks to all for helping us to help others.

Richard & Alice Lee

Thanks To A Lot Of People

We could never begin to thank enough all the people, merchants, and departments that helped us after losing our home in the May 8th fire.

To all the relatives that took us in; the friends and relatives who gave us money, food, and clothing; the Red Cross, who directed us to St. Mary's Church where we were given food, clothing and linen; the local merchants who gave food and clothing; the firemen, National Guard, police departments, the D.N.R., and all volunteers who all risked their lives to save people and their homes; the people local and distant who banded together to help us and others in our situation... our hearts go out to all of you.

Almanac

By Richard Milliman

Campaign law is unrealistic

REGARDLESS OF WHETHER Gov. James Blanchard is "officially" a candidate for reelection this year, the campaign certainly is underway in earnest.

It's ridiculous, of course, for the governor to declaim he is not yet a "candidate" for governor — at least, not officially.

He claims he has not formally "announced his candidacy," so therefore he is not a candidate.

This claim comes despite the fact that he has been raising money for his reelection campaign, has in place a campaign manager and nearly full staff for his reelection efforts, has filed three times as many signatures as needed on nominating petitions to secure a place on the August primary ballot and has even launched a television advertising campaign for his reelection.

Is he a candidate for governor? Sure he is... and has been for months. Is he conducting a campaign? Sure he is... and has been for months.

But the governor still plans to "announce" his candidacy in the next week or so, with all the pomp and fanfare "an official announcement" usually commands.

WHAT'S GOING ON here? Apparently it's all a matter of money.

As long as Mr. Blanchard is not "a candidate," therefore most things he does are in his role as governor, and the taxpayer foots the bill.

Whenever he does something that is overtly political — such as travel to a Democratic fundraising dinner, for example — then he turns off the "governor" sign, flips on the "politics" sign, and the campaign organization foots the bill.

But he has not officially "announced" as a candidate, so he can get away with a lot of governor-type activities which are border-line politics, at taxpayer expense.

Under Michigan campaign laws, candidates for governor who choose to receive state funds for their campaign must live within certain spending limits.

Thus, the more activities which the governor can pursue as governor, but which also benefit him as "candidate", — if he ever chooses to become one, of course — the higher the limits he can spend once he actually becomes a "candidate."

* * *

THERE IS A SCHOOL of reasoning which argues that everything an office holder does, no matter the intention, has political effect, and therefore can be considered political in nature.

When Mr. Blanchard, as governor, inspects some state projects — such as prison bootcamp, for example — is it political, or is it just doing his job? When Mr. Blanchard visits a home town fair or festival — such as the Holland Tulip Festival, for example — is it as "a candidate" or as governor of all the people?

It's a close call in both cases.

The law should be realistic. Once a candidate files petitions, starts running ads, puts a staff in place, then he/she is a candidate, regardless of whether there has been a formal announcement. Maybe that time comes even sooner.

Mr. Blanchard is not the only incumbent who hides within the letter of the law; but, as governor, he's the most visible one right now.

If Mr. Blanchard is acting within the law in his campaign activities of recent weeks, then the law should be changed to reflect what's really going on.

NUTS AND JOLTS — Some column closers from Hod Shewell:

—Another trillion or so added to the national debt and most Americans will wind up living in early-times old colonial homes, like wigwags.

—A head cold is both positive and negative... first the eyes have it, then the nose.

—One man in a thousand is a leader of men; the rest of us usually follow women.

—A synonym is a word used in place of the one you want to use but can't spell.

—When a mother tells the kids to wash up a little, they usually do exactly that.

Salvation Army Helps Forest Fire Victims

Page 5 -- AVALANCHE -- Thursday, MAY 31, 1990

In an immediate response to the Grayling fire disaster, Lt. Colonel Clarence Harvey, Divisional Commander for the Eastern Michigan Division of The Salvation Army, sent 22,000 pounds of food and a van-load of personal grooming items to Grayling on Friday, May 11.

Salvation Army officials, including Jeri Cadwallader,

Director of The Salvation Army's Service Extension Department, were on-site to review the extent of the damage and offer assistance that included food, clothing, shelter, prescriptions, and other basic needs, as well as help with relocation expenses and the future provision of furnishings for burned out families.

Jeri Cadwallader points out that Salvation Army representatives have been active in Grayling on a continuing basis for more than thirty (30) years, beginning with Roberta Wright, formerly of the Department of Social Services in Grayling. The Service Unit is now chaired by Carole Hallett who works closely with Betty Worden of the Department of Social Services. Ms. Cadwallader indicates that as long as the need exists in Grayling, The Salvation Army will still be operating here, providing a wide array of services to the citizens of Crawford County. There are thirty-six (36) other Service Extension Units in 18 counties of Eastern Michigan, where a total of 70 volunteers worked to provide assistance to more than 2,000 needy individuals in rural areas of the eastern section of the state in 1989.

KCC Offers Degree Program for Fire Fighters

Kirtland Community College announced today that it will begin offering an Associate in Applied Science Degree for Fire Fighters this coming fall.

Kirtland has been a Regional Training Center for the Michigan Fire Fighter Training Council since 1987, offering advanced training for fire fighters. Beginning in 1989, programs were also offered in Gaylord.

Douglas Purcell, Training Coordinator for Kirtland Community College stated,

"This program will be a very practical degree program. Concentration will be on fire suppression training with further study offered in various leadership skills. In this program, students will receive training that meets and exceeds current state requirements. Internships for students not currently members of a fire department may also be arranged."

For more information about this program contact the Student Services office at Kirtland Community College, 517-275-5121 or 800-433-2517.

GOOD COMPANION—Luke is a year old neutered male sheltie mix. He is housebroken, good with children, and ready for placement. Jumper (not pictured) is not a bird or a plane, but is a dog, able to jump over cars in a single bound! She is a five month old shepherd collie mix, very friendly and housebroken. The Crawford County Animal Shelter hours are Monday-Friday from 1-3 p.m. and on weekends from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Animal Care Tip

It is about time for fawns to make their appearance. Full grown deer have a hard enough time getting away from dogs running loose. Please keep your pet dogs tied, in a kennel, or in close eye. The DNR says dogs running deer is illegal, with a $55 fine, and your dog can be impounded. If the deer is killed it is a civil offense with a $1,000 fine plus the courts can be petitioned to have the dog destroyed. Give dogs and wildlife a chance, keep your family's pet under control.

Elementary Notes

By Krista Alef

The last day of choir was May 23, 1990. The day started with all the choir kids going to Frederic Elementary School to sing for D.K. through the 4th grades. They all sang very well. After that they went to McDonald's and behaved very well there too. The choir went and sang great two times at the Grayling Elementary School. The choir was very tired but stood up. All of the choir kids did great on their recorders. We had 140 members in the beginning but now we have 84 kids. These 84 kids kept up their work and came to practice two days a week. "Thanks Mrs. Ross for helping us," said the choir and Mrs. Emerick. The choir sang GREAT all year.

Campbell Named Coordinator For Dispute Resolution Program

The Board of Directors of Christian Conciliation Service of Central Michigan has named Helen I. Campbell as Coordinator of its Community Dispute Resolution Program. This new program will provide mediation and arbitration as an alternative to litigation in Clinton, Eaton, and Ingham Counties, using trained volunteer mediators from the community.

Campbell will be responsible for promoting community dispute resolution by contacting various segments of the community to disseminate information and discuss the merits and methods of the mediation process. Her other duties will include work with volunteer mediators, case intake, scheduling, mediation, and follow-up.

This community dispute resolution program is one of thirteen in Michigan awarded grants by the State Court Administrative Office. Funding was provided by a $2 increase in civil court filing fees, collected by the courts. The purpose is to reduce the number of cases on civil court dockets, which are becoming increasingly overcrowded, by diverting cases which may be resolved through mediation.

Ms. Campbell brings a varied background to the program, having served as Director of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) in Crawford County, Manager of Wesley Center Inn, Owosso, and Director of Sibs For Kids, a big brother/big sister organization in Grayling.

In 1985 she obtained her Associate in Business Degree from Kirtland Community College, Roscommon, graduating cum laude. She received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Michigan, Flint, in 1988, and is currently a third-year student at Thomas M. Cooley Law School. She is active on the Cooley student newspaper, The Pillar, and an officer of Christian Legal Society, a student organization.

Ms. Campbell has three children, Douglas, a resident of Lansing, Deborah, who lives in Mt. Pleasant, and Stephan, who resides in Grayling. She has four grandchildren.

COOR Hosts Career Exploration Program

For the second year, J.O.O.R. Intermediate School District will offer a six weeks Career Exploration Program for 14 and 15 year olds. The program will last for 21 days from the beginning of June through July for area youths who are eligible for JTPA funding.

The summer program will be held at Kirtland Community College, and provides area youth with a wide assortment of Vocational Education Programs. Some of these programs include computerized accounting, building trades, automotive service technology, marketing, health occupations, and office procedures. From this list, the student will choose three programs to explore, while one must be non-traditional to their gender.

The goal of each of these programs is to develop an awareness of the many requirements, skills, and abilities needed to acquire a successful job. It also creates an awareness that decisions regarding careers and their high school classes must be made early.

All students participating will receive "performance payments" approximately equal to $3.80 per hour, including bonuses that can be earned for competency attainment. At the end of the summer program, those meeting exploration requirements may attend a career related field trip.

Roscommon Knocks Vikings Out of Baseball Tournament

Rival Roscommon knocked Grayling out of state baseball tournament action last Tuesday, May 22, with a 5-1 win at Cornell Field.

Joel Mack hit a lead off home run in the seventh inning and Grayling put two more runners aboard in the last ditch attempt. But the next three Vikings struck out. Brian Palmer got the only other hit for Grayling. Jim Abney got the loss.

Grayling got an indication things weren't going their way when they dropped a double-header 2-1 and 6-5 Monday to Charlevoix. In the first game, Eric LaForest drove in David Teddy for the lone Viking run. Jim Abney got three hits. John Jurkovich pitched and didn't give up any earned runs. The Vikings had a runner on third in the last inning.

In the second game, Grayling had the tying run on second in the last inning. Matt Branch led the team with three hits, including a home run. Mack had two hits including a home run. Mick McKinney, Palmer, Teddy, and LaForest added a hit each. Teddy and Palmer pitched.

JVs Handle Charlevoix 3-2

The Grayling J.V. team beat Charlevoix 3-2 on May 21 behind the pitching of Eric LaForest and shortstop play of Andy Lochner. Mitch McMillan led the team with two hits. Aaron Raymond, Matt Gingrich, Clem Lochner, Steve Branch, and LaForest added a hit.

The second game was called after six innings because of darkness with the score tied 1-1. Eric Bonanie, McMillan, Raymond, Andy Lochner, LaForest, Scott Garner, Caleb Casey, and Nathan Mead all had a hit.

On May 18, Grayling lost 7-6 and 12-9 to Kalkaska at Cornell Field.

Matt Gingrich and Mike

Kirimo had two hits and Raymond had one hit in the first game. Kirimo was the losing pitcher.

McMillan had a double and three RBIs in the second game. Clem Lochner, Josh Wyss, Gingrich, and Bonanie each had a hit. Andy Lochner was the losing pitcher.

NO FEES.

We're waiving all fees on our Home Equity Line of Credit and our Homeowner's Loan between now and June 30.

And unlike some banks, there are no annual fees with these home equity loans, either.

NO WAIT.

Once you apply, you'll get an answer on your loan in as few as 24 hours. All you need to do is provide us with the necessary information, including the existing balance on your mortgage, which you can get from your mortgage lender, and your home's assessed valuation.

HOME EQUITY LOANS.

You can borrow anywhere from $5,000 to $100,000, depending on the equity in your home. And Old Kent gives you two choices:

Home Equity Line of Credit — offers the flexibility of writing a check whenever you need a loan.

Homeowner's Loan — offers the comfort of a fixed rate, fixed term loan. Both offer advantages over many credit cards or installment loans:

- Lower interest
- Lower monthly payments
- Tax deductible interest — consult your tax advisor.

Old Kent offers low interest rates, too. The current Annual Percentage Rate is 11 1/2% or 12%, depending on your line of credit. The APR may vary, but will not exceed 18%, and can go as low as 10%.

1-800-FON-KENT

You can apply for your home equity loan right over the phone by calling 1-800-FON-KENT. And to make it even easier, if you don't live near an Old Kent office, we'll close the loan at a place that's convenient for you.

So don't wait. Call Old Kent and say yes to this special no-fee, no-wait offer — today.

17 YEARS EXPERIENCE

Brush Wins National Recognition For Adult and Continuing Education

Krystal Brush, Grayling, was honored by the American Association for Adult and Continuing Education as an Outstanding Adult Learner Nominee. A nomination form was submitted to the National level in early November, the requirement stated the individual has demonstrated outstanding commitment and effort in furthering his or her education.

A few years ago, shortly before her son was to start kindergarten, she lost both of her kidneys. As a result of this tragic event she was informed of a shortened life expectancy.

Her desire to assist her young son with his education brought her to the Adult Learning Center. At this time, she had a low self-image, with limited future goals. Krystal felt that it would take her 2 1/2 to 3 years to successfully pass her GED. Her desire was to eventually begin taking classes at Kirtland.

Following the completion of predictor tests, Krystal was informed that she should complete the program in a matter of weeks, it took her seven. The self confidence in herself was building and she began to tutor students in the GED program. Her enthusiasm and successful work with the students lead her to begin tutoring in the Adult Basic Ed class.

In January Krystal began her first semester full time at Kirtland Community College. She continued to tutor in both GED and ABE classes as her schedule permitted. Her willingness to accept any duty requested and her unique ability to relate and emphasize with the students at the Adult Learning Center has lead to the nomination as an Adult Learner. In addition to this nomination, Krystal earned a 3 point plus grade point average in her first semester in college.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT—Krystal Brush was nominated by her teacher, Teri Moran, and Community Education Director, Robert Hannan, for the 1990 Outstanding Adult Learner Award.

Petrolane Donates $300

Mike Lesko, Mio District Manager, presented the check to Glen's Market for $20 gift certificates which will be given out at the emergency relief center.

About your Social Security

In this column, you often read of your rights under Social Security. It is important for you to know about monthly disability, survivors, and retirement benefits, and when and how to get them. And you should be aware of what Medicare provides if you are 65 or older, or eligible based on disability or kidney failure.

But there is another side to the coin. It is also essential that you clearly understand responsibilities you have under Social Security. Here are some prime examples:

—When you file a claim, benefits are not paid automatically when you become disabled, retire, or after your death. An application must be filed with Social Security, and the necessary evidence submitted. Social Security representatives will explain what is needed, and it's up to the applicant to cooperate fully in providing proofs or information.

—While you're getting benefits, you must promptly report events that may affect your payments. For example, notify Social Security when you change your address; expect your earnings from work to exceed the allowable limit (or any amount if you get benefits because you are disabled); if you marry or divorce, or if you begin receiving, or get an increase in, a public disability pension, workers' compensation, or non-Social Security covered pension.

There may be other responsibilities involving Social Security too. For instance, you now need to show a Social Security number on the Federal tax return for each listed dependent who is age 2 and over. And, if you change your name, you should apply for a replacement Social Security card showing your new name.

People who receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) have additional reporting responsibilities, including changes in income, resources, and living arrangements.

For more information, or to report a change, call Social Security toll-free at 800-234-5772 from 7:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m., weekdays.

The Traverse City office is located at 1111 E. Front St., and business hours are 9:00-4:30, weekdays, except national holidays.

A representative is at the County Building in Grayling on the first and third Tuesday of each month. There is no phone service at this location. Callers should use the toll free number 800-234-5772.

SIGGY'S

Mike and Joy Sigman
Were following their star
When they came into Grayling
And bought a local bar

They're a couple of real fine folks
With a caring friendly way
That will see to it you feel welcome
Should you stop in there some day

They have done a lot of work there
They have really changed that place
I'll bet if you would stop in now
You'd wear a look of surprise on your face

Everything looks so neat and clean
Which was not always true before
But you can sense a big change in the place
As soon as you walk in the door

So why not stop in today
Forget those old tales of yesterday
An entirely different clientele
Will greet your eyes today

So stop in and meet Mike and Joy
And welcome them to our town
For they are the kind of folks we need
To keep it from running down

So congratulations Mike and Joy
On the fine job you're doing there
We wish you all the best of luck
For you're the kind of folks that care

Fire! The mere mention of the word can bring sheer terror into a person's heart and mind. Too many people in this area have had a taste of that terrible fright and the tearing anguish that goes with it. We can, and have, helped with money and a sympathetic ear, but the stilling terror cannot be quenched so easily.

Thank heaven we don't give up easily, that there is a resilience which makes many want to start over again, knowing full well that some things lost, will never be replaced. It is a good thing that our ancestors were resilient too, because wildfire has, along with its aftermath, been with us a very long time in this state.

In the fall of 1871, fires badly damaged Holland and Manistee and then, pushed by very strong westerly winds, coupled with extremely dry conditions, burned across the state into the city of Port Huron. The fire destroyed the major portions of 21 counties in just two days. That fire combined with other fires in the state consumed 14,000 square miles of Michigan forest along with towns, and numerous lives, during 1871. Those fires burned over the equivalent of 24 Crawford Counties.

4-H Chatterbox

Hi again friends. Before we get into more clubs, I have some announcements. The Softball starting for 8 to 13 year olds with the Grayling Recreational Authority will be held from June 11th through July 31st. The cost is $7.50 and openings are still available. Please sign up by June 1st at Hanson Hills.

4-H Camp at the Kettunen Center near Cadillac is set for June 27, 28, and 29th. It is for any young person aged 8-12 years old. The cost is $45.00 and there are still some partial scholarships available. You do not have to be a 4-H member to attend. Call Shelley Hubbard at the Cooperative Extension office, 348-2841, ext. 265.

The 4-H Exploration Days are set for June 20, 21, 22nd and will be held at the Michigan State University. The group has 34 Crawford County teens and adults going. The deadline for sign-up is past but you can think about this for next year. I want to mention some items for the Achievement Day. We really appreciated Mr. Edward Schultz for his efforts in getting the pictures ready for the paper. It was really nice of him to volunteer his time on short notice. We thank each of those businesses for announcing the Achievement Day and making it noticeable to the public. Thanks go out to those who helped in other ways that this writer is not aware of.

Next, I'd like to mention about the Poultry Hatching Project in Mrs. Shirley McEvers' 3rd grade class. They started incubation on May 1st with 14 eggs. The students learned about the development of a chicken and when they hatched the students learned how to feed and water and care for the Banty chickens. Their early arrival a couple of weeks ago surprised the class. The nine chicks that hatched came on a weekend and everyone saw them on Monday returning to class. The young people were able to see some "candling" where they saw an embryo moving. Mrs. Karen Lanteth built an egg project on the 25th so that each student could learn about the parts of an egg. The eggs were donated by the 4-H Poultry Club led by Sharon Hadley and Donna Pratt. The chickens will be returning there when the project ends.

This year's Cross Country Ski Club was led by Linda Starks. She had 14 kids of various ages five and up. The five year olds had a parent escort. Thanks go to Sharon Birdsall for helping. The club started in January and stopped when the snow ended. They met at the Cross Country Ski Shop behind the Holiday Inn and the cost was only $2.00 for ski equipment rental. These were not lessons teaching skiing, but a fun time to get together and also introduce the kids to cross country skiing. A lot of falls, bumps, and laughter happened often. The owners of the Cross Country Ski Shop came out occasionally to give some tips and they were very much appreciated. Although parental help was short, Linda did manage to keep the club operating but is not sure of next year. So volunteer your time if you can.

I just want to mention that the tour of Chief Shoppenagon's on the 12th for the Food and Fitness Club was very nice. We appreciated Chef Carlene Englund for answering questions and showing us around. Also it was kind of Mary Harland to give each of us an ink pen and a coupon.

THANK YOU

We would like to thank our friends for their cards, flowers and kindness at our time of sorrow.

Martha and Virginia Bancroft

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

I John 2:1-6 Part #5 Victory Over Sin

God reminds us that our lives as Christians should be characterized by righteousness and holiness. "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." (I John 2:1). A holy God has called us unto holiness. (I Peter 1:15, 16). Sin is to be an exception rather than a practice or rule in Christian living. Every Christian has the comfort of knowing he/she has an advocate or attorney in Heaven to resist the accusations of Satan against us.

As our advocate and mediator (I Tim. 2:5), our Lord Jesus Christ became the propitiation for our sins. This remission of our sins was through His shed blood.

(Romans 3:25, 26). He took our sins and gave us his righteousness. (2 Cor. 5:21). "And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." (I John 2:2). He is not only our savior, but He is the only savior of the whole world." (I John 4:14). There is but one savior, advocate, and mediator to handle the sins of humanity, our Lord Jesus Christ. We are only reconciled to God through faith in Jesus Christ. (2 Cor. 5:18-20).

Victory over sin is not only characterized by righteousness and reconciliation, but also by right living. One who does not live like a Christian, gives no evidence of being a Christian. "And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him." (I John 2:3, 4). Christian life is evident by Christian obedience.

Right living gives evidence of Christian love within. "But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him." (I John 2:5). "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." (John 14:23). Christian love is evident by Christian obedience.

Right living gives evidence of Christian lordship within. "He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked." (I John 2:6). We cannot call Him Lord and not follow Him in obedience. Christian Lordship of Jesus Christ is evident by Christian obedience. As Jesus said, "And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46).

It is victory over sin which gives outward evidence of the life, love, and lordship of Jesus Christ in our lives. (Hear "The Bible Speaks" Tuesday at 12:15 p.m. on WQON 100 FM.)

GOD'S ENDURING LOVE

Imagine that you are standing in a giant redwood forest in California. Remarkably, one of these trees may have started to grow in 549 A.D., nine hundred and forty three years before Columbus discovered America, and continues to thrive today, fourteen hundred and forty one years since it began as a seedling. Almost unbelievably, this redwood tree has survived incredible natural and manmade turbulence, growing to an average height of two hundred and fifty feet, with a trunk twelve feet in diameter. Continue to cast your eyes upward. The foliage is dense, but you may catch a glimpse of the heavens beyond the tree tops.

Now, consider God's love. He created the redwoods. He created the universe and all that is in it. God's love is so great that its dimensions are immeasurable. Discover God's enduring love as you worship Him at your church or synagogue this week. God's love lives on... and on... forever.
